

overburdened as it is. To cut ten more days is not realistic. I'd ask your rejection of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on the Lamb amendment? Anything further, Senator Lamb? The motion is to adopt the Lamb amendment to LR 23. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Please record your vote. The issue before you is the adoption of the Lamb amendment to LR 23CA resolution. Fifteen seconds to record your vote. Please record your vote on the motion to amend LR 23CA offered by Senator Lamb. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR LAMB: Record vote.

PRESIDENT: A record vote has been requested.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 925 of the Legislative Journal.) 13 ayes, 18 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The amendment fails. Is there anything further on the resolution?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Wesely would move to amend. (Wesely amendment appears on page 926 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. Is that in the Journal or not?

CLERK: No, sir.

SENATOR WESELY: Not printed, I'm sorry. I did pass around when the bill almost came up a while back, if you've got your files in front of you, a handout on this. The reason the bill has been held up about a month is because when we had the original discussion Senator Lundy and Senator Vickers and some others said, you know we really like the idea but it comes...and Senator Haberman said, it comes too late in December. If we could just move it up a week or two, that would be tremendous. So we met with Secretary of State Beermann and we worked and worked and worked and came up with an extra week so that we could start the first week of December versus the second week of December. That is essentially what this amendment would allow. It will require some statutory changes in the election process that Allen Beermann has agreed to and will take care of that, but
